IMPORTANT: PROPOSED CHANGES TO THE HIGHER EDUCATION SYSTEM FROM 1 JANUARY 2016.

The Australian Government is planning to introduce a range of reforms to improve our higher education system. Some of these changes will affect individuals that are accessing VET FEE-HELP assistance. These changes aim to create greater choice for all students, whatever you choose to study and wherever you go. It is important that current and future students understand how these changes will affect them. These changes are subject to the passage of legislation.

VET FEE-HELP An Australian Government loan scheme that assists eligible students enrolled in certain higher-level VET courses, at providers, with paying their tuition fees.
TRANSITIONING TO TERTIARY STUDY

Regardless of whether you are undertaking tertiary study for the first time, gaining further education, up-skilling, or re-training in a different field, moving into tertiary study is a big step and many students can find the transition difficult. To make the most of your tertiary education experience, speak with student administration staff at your approved provider (provider) for all enrolment-related matters and to inform yourself of all the support services available to you.

Top tips for transitioning to tertiary study and HELP loans

1. Get a TFN early!
   - If you want to use a VET FEE-HELP loan to pay for your study, you must submit your valid TFN (or valid Certificate of Application for a TFN) by the census date—otherwise you will not be able to use the loan for that study period.
   - If you do not have a TFN yet because you do not have a job, you must apply to the ATO for one. See section 2.1 for more information.

2. Be aware of your obligations.
   - Find out your census date(s). Census dates are critical to requesting a VET FEE-HELP loan or withdrawing your enrolment without incurring a financial debt for the unit (or academic penalty). See section 2.3 for more information.
   - Find out your provider’s policy for contacting students. If its policy is to contact you by an in-house email system (e.g. a student email account), it is your responsibility to check your email on a regular basis, either on campus or at your local public library. If you cannot access a VET FEE-HELP loan because you missed the census date, claiming you did not have access to email or being unaware that you had to check your email are not acceptable excuses.

• Find out your provider’s academic probation policy. If you are not progressing satisfactorily in your course, your provider may choose to cancel your enrolment, regardless of whether you incurred a VET FEE-HELP debt or made an upfront payment for that study.

3. You are responsible for your own education.

• Due to privacy requirements, providers cannot disclose information to your spouse, parents, or anyone else about your payment details, HELP loan, attendance or other personal matters.

• If you remain enrolled in a unit past the census date but choose not to attend any classes or hand in any assignments, your provider is not obliged to find out why—and you will be liable to either: pay the tuition fee or incur a VET FEE-HELP debt for that unit.

4. Know who to ask for help.

• Your provider is your number one source of information for all study-related queries. Student administration staff will be able to assist you with all enrolment and administration matters or will direct you to the appropriate area (refer to the Contacts section for other useful contacts).

5. Get involved!

• Most providers offer an orientation service for new students, in addition to social events and various clubs. Participating in these events are great ways to learn your way around, meet new people and build a support network.

• If you are studying online or by distance, social media pages, blogs and online discussion groups are excellent avenues for connecting with fellow students.
1. THE VET FEE-HELP LOAN SCHEME

You may be interested to know that:

- if you use a VET FEE-HELP loan, you will not have to make any repayments in the 2014–15 income year unless your income is $53,345 or above, and
- if there is a direct connection between your work and your study at the time, you may be able to claim your tuition fees as a tax deduction. You must contact the ATO for more information regarding how to claim self-education expenses, including eligible study and applicable caps on the amount that can be claimed.

1.1 What is VET FEE-HELP?

VET FEE-HELP is a loan scheme that helps eligible VET students pay their tuition fees for certain higher-level VET qualifications. Refer to section 1.2 for more information.

You do not have to use a VET FEE-HELP loan to pay your tuition fees. You can choose to pay all your tuition fees upfront to your provider, you can pay some of your tuition fees upfront and use a VET FEE-HELP loan for the rest, or you can use a VET FEE-HELP loan for all your tuition fees (up to your FEE-HELP limit).

1.2 Who can use VET FEE-HELP?

Eligible students

VET FEE-HELP is available to eligible VET fee paying/fee for service students. These students are enrolled in fee paying places at providers, and charged tuition fees for their studies. All providers that can offer VET FEE-HELP loans are listed at www.studyassist.gov.au.
Eligible courses
An eligible student may access VET FEE-HELP for VET qualifications at the following levels:
- diploma
- advanced diploma
- graduate certificate, and
- graduate diploma.

Subsidised VET students
VET FEE-HELP is also available to eligible state or territory subsidised VET students who are enrolled with a provider in a state or territory that has implemented subsidised VET FEE-HELP arrangements. A subsidised VET student may use VET FEE-HELP to pay their tuition fees for VET qualifications at the following levels:
- diploma or advanced diploma, or
- selected certificate IV qualifications that are part of the VET FEE-HELP Certificate IV Trial.

Certificate IV Trial
For a trial period, VET FEE-HELP loans are to be extended to selected Certificate IV qualifications in certain states/territories.

You may be eligible to participate in the trial if you meet the VET FEE-HELP citizenship and residency requirements, and you must also be eligible for a subsidised place in one of the specific courses that are part of the trial. This trial does not extend to full fee paying/fee for service students, regardless of whether they are enrolled in one of the eligible courses.

Visit www.studyassist.gov.au for more information regarding the timelines, eligibility requirements, eligible courses and eligible providers.
1.3 What are the citizenship and residency requirements for VET FEE-HELP?

To access a VET FEE-HELP loan, you must meet the eligibility requirements as specified in section 1.2 and be either:

- an Australian citizen
- OR

a permanent humanitarian visa holder who is resident in Australia for the duration of your unit.

IMPORTANT NOTE FOR NEW ZEALAND SPECIAL CATEGORY VISA (SCV) HOLDERS

The Australian Government has proposed changes to the eligibility criteria for HELP from 1 January 2015, subject to the passage of legislation. The changes will allow eligible New Zealand SCV holders to access HELP loans. For more information about this proposed change, visit www.studyassist.gov.au.

Need to check your visa subclass?

Your provider will need proof of your visa status to verify eligibility. The Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) system is a free, online service that allows visa holders and registered Australian organisations, such as providers, to check the details and entitlements of a visa. To access the VEVO service, please visit www.immi.gov.au/vevo.

If you are not eligible for VET FEE-HELP, you will need to confirm upfront payment dates and arrangements with your provider directly. If you cannot afford to pay your entire tuition fees upfront, you should contact your provider as some may offer their own payment options or plans.
1.4 How much can I borrow—what is the FEE-HELP limit?

The FEE-HELP limit is the maximum amount you can borrow under VET FEE-HELP (and FEE-HELP) over your lifetime. The FEE-HELP limit is not reset or topped up by any repayments that you make. If you have reached the FEE-HELP limit (meaning the indexed amount for that year), you are no longer eligible to access a VET FEE-HELP (or FEE-HELP) loan.

In 2015, the FEE-HELP limit is $97,728 for most students. If you are studying a medicine, dentistry or veterinary science course that leads to provisional registration to practise in one of those fields, your FEE-HELP limit is $122,162. This limit is indexed on 1 January each year.

NOTE: As part of the 2014–15 Budget the Government proposed that the FEE-HELP limit will be removed and there will be no limit on the amount of FEE-HELP and VET FEE–HELP assistance that a student can access. This change will apply to all students from 1 January 2016. This change is subject to the passage of legislation. For more information about changes to higher education that may affect you, visit www.studyassist.gov.au.

1.5 What is the FEE-HELP balance?

The FEE-HELP balance is the available amount of VET FEE-HELP (or FEE-HELP) that you have left to use before you reach the FEE-HELP limit. You are responsible for keeping track of your FEE-HELP balance and for advising your provider if you do not have enough left to cover your tuition fees.

1.6 Will I be charged interest?

Your debt will be indexed. HELP debts are indexed annually in accordance with the Higher Education Support Act 2003. In 2015, the Act provides for indexation based on changes in the Consumer Price Index. Indexation rates are published on the ATO website, visit www.ato.gov.au.
NOTE: As part of the 2014–15 Budget, the Government proposed changes to the way HELP debts are indexed. From 1 June 2016 all HELP debts will be indexed by the Treasury 10 year bond rate (to a maximum of 6.0 per cent per annum). This change is subject to the passage of legislation. For more information about this proposed change, visit www.studyassist.gov.au.

1.7 Is there a loan fee?

Yes. There is a 20 per cent loan fee which is applied to VET FEE-HELP loans for fee paying/fee for service students. The loan fee does not count towards your FEE-HELP limit. The loan fee is 20 per cent of the tuition fees charged for your units–and it is calculated for each individual unit as you undertake your course. The loan fee is applied to each unit that is paid for with a VET FEE-HELP loan.

For example, if you are undertaking a unit that costs $1,000 the loan fee is 20 per cent of $1,000 = $200. As such, your VET FEE-HELP debt for that unit will be the cost of the unit ($1,000) + the loan fee ($200) = $1,200.

The loan fee is not applied to eligible subsidised VET students studying in a state or territory that has implemented VET FEE-HELP arrangements for subsidised students.

NOTE: As part of the 2014–15 Budget the Government proposed that the existing 20 per cent VET FEE–HELP loan fee will be removed from 1 January 2016. This change is subject to the passage of legislation. For more information about changes to higher education that may affect you, visit www.studyassist.gov.au.
2. APPLYING FOR A VET FEE-HELP LOAN

More information about applying for VET FEE-HELP, including information on enrolling in multiple courses or at different providers, is available from the CSP and HELP Handbook for 2015 at www.studyassist.gov.au.

2.1 How do I apply for VET FEE-HELP?

To apply for VET FEE-HELP you must submit a valid Request for VET FEE-HELP assistance form (the form) to your provider by the census date. If you do not submit your form by the census date for a unit of study, you will not be able to access VET FEE-HELP for that unit of study. Retrospective access to VET FEE-HELP is not allowed under any circumstances. Many providers will allow you to submit a specific electronic version of the form online. Check with the student administration/enrolments office at your provider if you are unsure about whether to submit a paper or electronic form.

If you want to use a VET FEE-HELP loan to pay for your study, you must submit your valid TFN, even if you do not have a job. This is because repayments on your HELP debt are made through the Australian taxation system. If you do not provide your own TFN or you provide an incorrect one, your form will not be valid and you will not be able to use a VET FEE-HELP loan for the unit(s) of study in which you have enrolled.

If you do not have a TFN, you will need to apply to the ATO for one. When you do so, the ATO will, on request, supply you with a Certificate of application for a TFN. Even before you receive your TFN from the ATO, you can attach your certificate to your form as proof that you have applied for a TFN. You must advise your provider of your TFN within 21 days of receiving it.
You must keep your TFN secure. Do not provide your TFN if you are only enquiring about a course. Only provide your TFN or the certificate on the form (either paper or electronic) in order to pay your tuition fees for the specific course(s) of study in which you are enrolled.

2.2 What happens if I want to enrol in multiple courses or I want to change my course or provider?

If you want to enrol in two different courses at the same provider, you must submit a separate form for each course.

If you change your course or provider you will also need to submit a new form for your new course or provider.

You will also need to officially withdraw from any units you have enrolled in and do not wish to continue with, by the census date, so that you do not incur a VET FEE-HELP debt. Withdrawal does not happen automatically when you transfer to a new course or provider or when you stop attending classes. See Chapter 4 for information on withdrawing from your studies.

2.3 What is the census date?

The census date is the most important date for you to know about!

The census date is the last day you can:

• submit your form to access a VET FEE-HELP loan, or
• withdraw your enrolment without incurring the cost or debt for that unit.

As providers set their own census dates (within rules set by the Australian Government), this date will vary across units and providers. You must contact your provider to confirm the census date for each unit you enrol in and the exact deadline of the census date (i.e. close of business etc).
What is the administrative date?
In addition to the census date, some providers also set an administrative date for you to complete certain requirements before the census date. For example, some may want you to submit your form or withdraw your enrolment by the administrative date so they have time to finalise your enrolment.

If you miss the administrative date, you may have to pay a late enrolment fee or a late withdrawal fee. However, you can still withdraw from a unit by the census date to avoid incurring the cost or debt for that unit.

Check with your provider to find out:
• if they have an administrative date
• the census date(s) for your units of study, and
• the exact deadline of the census date(s) (i.e. close of business etc).

2.4 How will I know if my application for VET FEE-HELP is accepted?
You must contact your provider directly for assistance. The forms are processed by providers and not the Australian Government.
3. KEEPING TRACK OF YOUR VET FEE-HELP LOAN

3.1 Your Commonwealth Assistance Notice (CAN)

Your provider will send you a CAN within 28 days of the census date of each study period that you are using Commonwealth assistance. Your CAN will state how much you have been charged for the units you are enrolled in and the amount of VET FEE-HELP debt you have incurred for that study period.

Check your CAN carefully to make sure that:
- the tuition fees on the CAN are the same as those published on your provider’s website
- the loan fee has been calculated correctly (if applicable), and
- the CAN does not include any units you withdrew from by the census date.

If you believe the information on your CAN is incorrect, you have 14 days to submit a written application to your provider to request a correction (some providers may allow a longer correction period).

3.2 Your Commonwealth Higher Education Student Support Number (CHESSN) and myUniAssist

You will be allocated a CHESSN when you first apply for admission to your provider (or Tertiary Admissions Centre for higher education). Your CHESSN is a unique identification number that remains with you during and after your studies. It helps you, your provider and the Australian Government keep up to date with information about the Commonwealth assistance for tertiary study that you have used. Your CHESSN will also be printed on your CAN.

You can use your CHESSN and other personal identifying details to access myUniAssist via www.studyassist.gov.au. myUniAssist provides information on how much Commonwealth assistance you have received (but it will not display information related to study undertaken before 2005). You can refer to the FEE-HELP assisted units tab in myUniAssist to find out how much VET FEE-HELP you have used and how much of your FEE-HELP limit you have left.

myUniAssist is updated with details about your HELP usage as reported by your provider four times a year. Given the time delay in reporting data, you may need to add any units you have recently enrolled in/are currently enrolled in (refer to your CAN for the relevant study period) to the information shown on myUniAssist to determine your actual entitlements.

myUniAssist will not provide information about the current level of your HELP debt as repayments are made to the ATO and myUniAssist is not updated with this information.

3.3 Your HELP account information statement

The ATO no longer automatically sends HELP account information statements. You can obtain account information, such as the balance of your account or your payment reference number (PRN) by:

- logging onto your secure ATO online account, through myGov
- phoning the ATO at any time during the year. Be sure to have your TFN handy when you call. The ATO will ask you for it, for security purposes before they disclose any personal information to you.
4. WITHDRAWAL OR NON-COMPLETION OF STUDIES

More information about withdrawal procedures and special circumstances is available from the CSP and HELP Handbook for 2015 at www.studyassist.gov.au. You must also familiarise yourself with the specific withdrawal policy at your provider.

4.1 What happens if I fail/withdraw from a unit?

If you fail a unit, or withdraw from the unit after the census date, you are still liable to pay the tuition fees of that unit, regardless of whether you attended any classes or handed in any assessment items.

If you used a VET FEE-HELP loan, you will incur a VET FEE-HELP debt and if you made an upfront payment, you are not eligible for a refund of that payment.

If you correctly withdraw from the unit by the census date, you will not be liable to pay the cost or incur the debt of that unit. If you have already made an upfront payment of your tuition fees, you will receive a refund from your provider.

If you failed the unit or withdrew from the unit after the census date because you became seriously ill or because of other special circumstances, you can apply to your provider to have your FEE-HELP balance re-credited and your HELP debt removed. Contact your provider directly for information on the application process.

4.2 How do I withdraw from a unit?

You need to complete your provider’s formal withdrawal process for every unit that you want to withdraw from by the census date. If the course you are withdrawing from involves enrolment with more than one provider, you will need to withdraw from each one individually.
Contact your provider to ensure you withdraw your enrolment by the census date and in accordance with the required procedures to avoid incurring the cost or debt of the unit.

4.3 Special circumstances

If you withdraw from a unit after the census date because you become seriously ill or for other special circumstances, you can apply to your provider to have your FEE-HELP balance re-credited and your HELP debt removed. There are no provisions under the Higher Education Support Act 2003 to have your debt removed if you have already successfully completed your unit of study.

However, if you withdrew from a unit after the census date because you changed your mind about studying, you will still be required to repay your HELP debt.

For your provider to be satisfied that special circumstances applied to you, you must be able to prove that the circumstances:

- were beyond your control
- did not make their full impact on you until on or after the census date, and
- made it impracticable for you to complete your unit(s) of study requirements.

NOTE: You need to submit your application for special circumstances to your provider within 12 months of your withdrawal day. More information about this process and appeal procedures is available from the CSP and HELP Handbook for 2015 at www.studyassist.gov.au.
5. REPAYING YOUR HELP DEBT

More information about HELP repayments, including how the ATO calculates your compulsory repayment, is available from the CSP and HELP Handbook for 2015 at www.studyassist.gov.au.

NOTE: As part of the 2014–15 Budget, the Government proposed changes to the repayment of HELP loans including the introduction of a new minimum repayment threshold and repayment rate and changes to the indexation of your HELP debt. These changes will commence in 2016 and are subject to the passage of legislation. For more information about these proposed changes and how they will affect you, please visit www.studyassist.gov.au.

5.1 When do I start paying back the loan?

Your VET FEE-HELP debt becomes part of your accumulated HELP debt. The minimum repayment threshold for compulsory repayment is adjusted each year. In the 2014–15 income year, you will be required to make a compulsory repayment if your income is $53,345 or above. Repayments made through the Australian taxation system are called compulsory repayments and continue until you have repaid your whole debt.

5.2 How much will my repayments be?

The amount you repay each year is calculated as a percentage of your repayment income. The repayment percentage increases as your income increases, but is capped at 8 per cent of your income. The ATO will calculate your compulsory repayment for the year and include it on your income tax notice of assessment.

5.3 Can I make a voluntary repayment?

There are several ways you can make a voluntary repayment, including via BPAY and credit card. For more information on making a payment, go to www.ato.gov.au/howtopay.

NOTE: The Australian Government has proposed changes to the voluntary repayment arrangements (to be in effect from 1 January 2015). The changes are subject to the passage of legislation and until the relevant legislation is passed, the current arrangements apply.

Current arrangements

Voluntary repayments of $500 or more receive a 5 per cent bonus. This means your account will be credited with an additional 5 per cent of the value of your repayment, not 5 per cent of your outstanding debt. For example, if you make a voluntary repayment of $500, the bonus increases the value of your repayment so your account will be credited with $525.
Proposed arrangements
If the proposed changes are approved, voluntary repayments would no longer be eligible to receive a bonus. For example, if you made a voluntary repayment of $500, your account would be credited with $500.

5.4 Are repayments tax deductible?
Compulsory repayments are not tax deductible. Voluntary repayments made by you or someone other than your employer are not tax deductible.

Your employer may be able to claim a tax deduction for voluntary repayments it makes on your behalf, but it may also be liable for fringe benefits tax on the repayments. For more information, contact the ATO.
